in Scotland
25th November - 10th December

Forth Valley College, Falkirk Campus, Grangemouth Road, Falkirk

16 Days of Activism against Gender-Based Violence is an international campaign that calls for the prevention and elimination of Violence Against Women and Girls. It was started by activists at the inaugural Women's Global Leadership Institute in 1991 and continues to be co-ordinated each year by the Centre for Women's Global Leadership. It starts on the 25th of November - the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women - and ends on the 10th of December, the Human Rights Day.

The Forth Valley Launch event will reaffirm local government's commitment to preventing Gender Based Violence and acknowledging the importance of working in partnership with each other, our public sector partners, the Third Sector and those with lived experience of Gender Based Violence. The launch will exhibit work by Highland artist, Jacqueline Mackenzie, MA Art and Social Practice, an artist with lived experience of sexual violence, there will be an opportunity to discuss this and reflect on Jacqueline's work.
