Complaints Policy of CEA

CEA views complaints as an opportunity to learn and improve for the future, as well as a chance to put things right for the person that has made the complaint.

Our policy is:

- To provide a fair complaints procedure which is clear and easy to use for anyone wishing to make a complaint
- To publicise the existence of our complaints procedure so that people know how to contact us to make a complaint
- To make sure everyone at CEA knows what to do if a complaint is received
- To make sure all complaints are investigated fairly and in a timely way
- To make sure that complaints are, wherever possible, resolved and that relationships are repaired
- To gather information which helps us to improve what we do

Definition of a Complaint

A complaint is any expression of dissatisfaction, whether justified or not, about any aspect of the service we provide.

Where Complaints Come From

Complaints may come from the people who use the service currently or who have done so in the previous 12 months.

A complaint can be received verbally, by phone, by email or in writing.

This policy does not cover complaints from staff. They should use CEA's Discipline and Grievance policy.

Complaints Procedure of CEA

Publicised Contact Details for Complaints:

Written complaints may be sent to the Operational Manager at 21 Wellside Place, Falkirk, FK1 5RL or by email at debbie@cea.uk.com

Resolving Complaints

Stage One

In many cases, a complaint is best resolved by the person responsible for the issue being complained about. If the complaint has been received by that person, they may be able to resolve it swiftly and should do so if possible and appropriately. Whether or not the complaint has been resolved, the complaint information should be passed to The Operational Manager.

On receiving the complaint, the Operational Manager records it in the complaints log. If it has not already been resolved, she may delegate an appropriate person to investigate it and to take appropriate action.

Complaints will be acknowledged by the Operational Manager within 7 days. The acknowledgement should say who is dealing with the complaint and when the person complaining can expect a reply. A copy of this complaint's procedure should be attached.

Ideally complainants should receive a definitive reply within four weeks. If this is not possible because for example, an investigation has not been fully completed, a progress report should be sent with an indication of when a full reply will be given.

Whether the complaint is justified or not, the reply to the complainant should describe the action taken to investigate the complaint, the conclusions from the investigation, and any action taken as a result of the complaint.

Stage Two

If the complainant feels that the problem has not been satisfactorily resolved at Stage One, they can request that the complaint is reviewed at Board level. At this stage, the complaint will be passed to The Chair.

The request for Board level review should be acknowledged within 7 days of receiving it. The acknowledgement should say who will deal with the case and when the complainant can expect a reply.

The Chair may investigate the facts of the case themselves or delegate a suitably senior person to do so. This may involve reviewing the paperwork of the case and speaking with the person who dealt with the complaint at Stage One.

If the complaint relates to a specific person, they should be informed and given a further opportunity to respond.

The person who dealt with the original complaint at Stage One should be kept informed of what is happening.

Ideally complainants should receive a definitive reply within four weeks. If this is not possible because for example, an investigation has not been fully completed, a progress report should be sent with an indication of when a full reply will be given. Whether the complaint is upheld or not, the reply to the complainant should describe the action taken to investigate the complaint, the conclusions from the investigation, and any action taken as a result of the complaint.

The decision taken at this stage is final, unless the Board decides it is appropriate to seek external assistance with resolution.

External Stage

The complainant can complain to The Care Inspectorate by mail (Springfield House, Laurel Hill Business Park, Laurel Hill Road, Stirling, FK7 9JQ) or by telephone (01786 406363). Further information can be found at www.careinspectorate.com.

Variation of the Complaints Procedure

The Board may vary the procedure for good reasons. This may be necessary to avoid a conflict of interest, for example, a complaint about the Chair should also not have the Chair as the person leading a Stage Two review.

Monitoring and Learning from Complaints

Complaints may be reviewed annually to identify any trends which may indicate a need to take further action.

Confidentiality

All complaint information will be handled sensitively, telling only those who need to know and follow any relevant data protection requirements.
